

AS SEEN IN

the ritz-carlton

celebrating travel, life and leisure

treasure island

jeweler john hardy
is among seven
artisans who found
inspiration and
new lives on hawaii

tastemakers

the world's most exciting chefs
share their latest
food fascinations

lush life

Using centuries-old techniques, Moksha hand-loom its soft silks, lustrous cottons and crisp linens into wearable art. Because of the fine hand and light nature of the weaves, each piece in the collection is perfect for traveling, whether for wrapping yourself in one, or bringing a bit of luxury to a hotel room or long train trip. From the fall 2005 collection, above: the Amalfi wrap in gold and lime and the Caroline throw in red and gold of merino wool (mokshafinewovens.com).

MOKSHA
FINE WOENS